

AVAILABILITY ASSESSMENT

[Add these results to your Servant Profile]

Our time is very precious. How we use it reflects the depth of our commitment to service. We must carefully examine our schedules to determine how available we are for doing those things that are truly important to Christ in accomplishing His will and fulfilling His purposes for our life and for those around us.

Are you making service a priority? Or are you crowding it out with less important activities?

Scripture says, “Be careful how you live your life. Don’t live like a fool, but live your life wisely. Never miss an opportunity to serve God, but always make the most of your time, because you are living in evil times.” (Eph. 5:15-16).

There are numerous ministry needs and limited time in which to meet them. We must make it a priority to make the most of our time for the sake of Christ and His Kingdom. Your Servant Profile provides a portrait of who God made you to be and how He wants you to serve. Are you willing to live in line with God’s desires for you? Are you committed to fulfilling your God-given destiny and purpose in this life?

You may need to adjust your schedule to make time for serving the needs of others in the church family, the community, and the world.

In your current season of life, how available are you and what level of commitment are you willing and able to make? [Circle A1, A2, A3 or A4]

A1 = Minimal = Hardly ever available for volunteer service.

A2 = Moderate = Available once or twice each month for volunteer service.

A3 = Considerable = Available once or twice each week for volunteer service.

A4 = Conspicuous = Available nearly any time for volunteer service.
